| STUDENT | For all KSU students who are taking a full course load of in-person courses, a membership is automatically applied to your account and a Student Rec. Fee is collected with tuition. If you fall into this category, you will have access upon your arrival at the facilities. Classes that are online only, research hours, hybrid classes, co-op experiences, and education abroad courses are not automatically charged the Student Rec. Fee, which may mean your student membership will not be activated. KSU students that are participating in programs at Kennesaw State University and do not pay the mandatory student recreation fee will need to purchase a membership if they would like access to Sports and Recreation facilities and programs. KSU Students taking a single semester off from study may purchase a membership for no more than one semester after recent enrollment. | |
